305 Whistleblower Policy

The School requires board members, directors, and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the School, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns internally so that the School can address and correct inappropriate conduct and actions. It is the responsibility of all board members, directors, and employees to report concerns about violations of the School's code of ethics or suspected violations of laws or regulations that govern the School's operations.

It is contrary to the values of the School for anyone to retaliate against any board member, director, or employee who in good faith reports an ethics violation, or a suspected violation of law, such as a complaint of discrimination, suspected fraud, or suspected violation of any regulation governing the operations of the School. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

The School has an open-door policy and suggests that employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions, or complaints with their supervisor. If you are not comfortable speaking with your supervisor or you are not satisfied with your supervisor's response, you are encouraged to speak with the Executive Director. Supervisors and managers are required to report complaints or concerns about suspected ethical and legal violations in writing to the TITLE who has the responsibility to investigate all reported complaints. Employees with concerns or complaints may also submit their concerns in writing directly to their supervisor or the TITLE or the Board Chair.

The Executive Director is responsible for ensuring that all complaints about unethical or illegal conduct are investigated and resolved. The TITLE will advise the Board of Directors of all complaints and their resolution.

Anyone filing a written complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

The TITLE will notify the person who submitted a complaint and acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation. All reports will be promptly investigated, and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.
